December 9 Deadline For Award Selection

Attractive Articles Displayed At Portals

With selection cards distributed last week to all Carbide em-ployees in the Y-12 Plant Area eligible to receive individual safety awards for helping establish the record-breaking 26th Union Carbide Corporation Safety Period, the Safety Department has announced that Friday, De-cember 9, is the deadline for having the cards returned to that department. This date provides 10 working days from date of dis-tribution, ample time for all eligible employees to make their selection.

Meanwhile, the wide variety of 25 attractive items offered as awards still are on display at the Cafeteria daily and also are being displayed on a rotating basis at plant portals.

The schedule for the remainder of the displays at portals follows: North — Noon, December 1, until noon, December 5.

Bear Creek — Noon, December 5, until noon, December 6.

West — Noon, December 6, until noon, December 8.

North - Noon, December 8, until noon, December 9.

CHISHOLM PROMOTED

Charles G. Chisholm has been appointed vice president, marketing, for the Haynes Stellite Co., Division of Union Carbide Corporation. Chisholm joined Union Carbide in 1933 and has been general sales manager of Haynes Stellite since 1956.

LONGEST CONVENTION

The longest political party convention in history was that of the Democratic Party in 1924. In that meeting it took 103 ballots to name John W. Davis as the presidential nominee. That was the first convention heard on radio.

Y-12 Christmas Hop, UCNC Parties For Youngsters Set For Holidays

Gordy's Band To Play For December 16 Dance; Children To See Santa Claus December 22, 23

With the last of the Thanksgiving turkey hash disposed of, Y-12ers and their small fry progeny now are looking forward to the jingle of Christmas bells and the holiday season made famous by old Santa Claus. For both the grown-ups and youngsters there will be a full schedule of entertainment activities that will include the traditional Christmas Dance® for the adults and five big Union Carbide Nuclear Company Christmas parties for their children in the two to ten-year-old age bracket, inclusive.

Mark Dates On Calendar

So right now is not too late to mark these important dates on handy calendars so as not to pos-sibly overlook them. Oversight in forgetting these functions undoubtedly will cause many regrets afterward.

Y-12 parents are urged to note that the Children's Christmas Parties schedule has been changed from previous years with only two being held on the second day of the holiday festivities.

For the Christmas Dance at the Oak Terrace, the services of the popular Papa John Gordy and his Dixielanders band from Nashville again has been estain. Nashville again has been obtained. That alone should be enough to pack the hall with Y-12 trippers of the light fantastic. Papa John and his tunesters trot out toe-tickling dance music from the start of the shindig at 9 p.m. to closing at 1 a.m.

Tickets for the Christmas Dance now are on sale at various locations throughout the plant (see adjoining column for sellers.) The ducats sell for $1.50 per person, tax included.

The application blank for parents to apply for needed tickets for the Children's Christmas Par-ties is published on Page Four of this edition of The Bulletin. It will be repeated in editions of December 7 and 14. This will give all parents ample time to file their applications before the deadline on Friday, December 16.

Parents are urged to use ex-treme care in filling out the applications. Names should be cleary written, preferably printed or

Israeli Pianist To Give Concert On December 4

David Bar-Illan, young Israeli pianist, will present a concert of Schubert, Beethoven, Mozart, Debussy and Ben-Haim works Sunday night, December 4, at 8:15 p.m. in the Oak Ridge High School auditorium. The concert is jointly sponsored by the Oak Ridge Civic Music Association and the local chapter of B'nai Brith.

The young virtuoso made his debut in Carnegie Hall in 1954, and has played with outstanding orchestras all over the world, most recently with the Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of the late Dimitri Mitropoulos. During his recent tours of both South and North America, he won the praise and captured the imagination of critics and audiences alike.

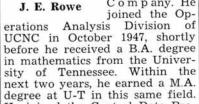

The public is invited to hear this concert. Tickets will be available at the box office.

Reactors, Atoms And Players Triumph In Opening Carbide Basketball Tilts

ORGDP Hot Shots Defeat Y-12 Hoopniks; Close Engagements Mark Seasonal Openers

The Y-12 Reactors, tournament champions last season in the Carbide Basketball League of Y-12 and Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant hoopsters, opened the new season with a rousing rally to defeat the ORGDP Lab L cagers by 38 to 35. In other opening night games on November 21 the Y-12 Atoms licked their fellow plant team, the Rebels, by 39 to 33; the Players took a 34 to 31 decision from the Hawks, both being Y-12 outfits; and the ORGDP Hot Shots took a 38 to 27 victory from the Y-12 Hoopniks.

First Tilt Goes Overtime

The Atoms and Rebels opened the schedule at the Oak Ridge High School with an overtime tilt. The Atoms held a 17-15 lead at halftime, but a 12-point Rebel uprising in the third period sent the Rebs out in the lead by a 27-23 margin. The Atoms rallied in the fourth round to deadlock the tally at 33-all and then forged ahead with six points to none in the extra time. Cothron led the winners with 13 points while Teno was high gun for the Rebels with 12

The Reactors also had to come from behind for their win over Lab L. Trailing by seven points until late in the third quarter the Y-12ers opened up for a 20point last half. The difference was in free throws, the Reactors sinking 16 to only seven for the opposition. Fitzgerald and Chandler each had nine for the Reactors and Fike 16 for the losers.

Only ORGDP Victory

The Hot Shots opened up with basket barrage at Robertsville Junior High School against the Hoopniks and were leading by 19-6 at intermission. The Hoopniks rallied in the third chapter with a 12-6 edge but the ORGDPers came back to ice the victory. Peters was high man for the Y-12ers with 14 points and Morton tallied 23 for the winners.

The Players ran up a 24-15 halftime advantage, but the Hawks came back strong in the last half to make it close as the final whistle sounded. Stephens topped the Players' scorers with 20 points while Pridgeon topped the losers with 13 counters.

Mixed And Classic Leagues Are Idle

Because of the Thanksgiving Season Now Open

The open season for hunting rabbits and quail in Tennessee got underway November 21 will resume their closely contested races this week when the Mixed League will bowl on Wednesday night and the Classic League Hunts Begin Soon on Thursday night.

C League Leaders All Are Beaten As Race Tightens

Top ranked teams in the C League of Y-12 bowlers took bad lickings on the hardwood November 21 as lower bracket quintets rose up to tighten up the already close race. The Big Five held onto the top rung of the ladder by the slim margin of one point after taking a three-point defeat at the hands of the Ramblers. The IBMs backed into second place al-though losing three to the Hook-ers as C Shift, previously tied for second, was whitewashed by the SPs. In other engagements the Beta Four keglers cooled off the Chillers for three and tie matches of two points each were posted by the Par Busters-Sunflowers and Hilifers-Alley Cats.

Ed Sise, Big Five, again was top scratch series scorer for the night with a fine 610. Bill Maddux, Sunflowers, was hot in one game for a 246 scratch score which he boosted to 270 with handicap.

J. B. Strickland, Alley Cats, rolled a 667 handicap series for high for the night. The Alley Cats had the top scratch game of 915 and handicap series of 2993. The SPs had the top scratch series with 2645 and tied with the Hilifers at 1024 for high handicap

ForY-12ersAnnounced Is Retiring Today

Continued from Page 1 being given correctly. The applications should be clearly addressed to the Y-12 Recreation Department, Room 149, Bldg.

The Recreation Department will mail the requested tickets to the home address of the parents. It also is important to correctly designate which of the six parties the tickets are desired for and also to give a first and second choice of these parties so that if all tickets for one of the parties are given out, a substitution may be made. This is necessary be cause different tickets are issued for each of the several parties.

Exactly the same program will be presented at all of the UCNC Children's Christmas Parties. Movie cartoons will be presented, Santa Claus will appear on the stage to greet the young guests and every one of the youngsters will receive a Christmas stocking filled with gifts. A specialty vaudeville act also will be staged.

In order to avoid last minute confusion and congestion — all Y-12 parents intending to request tickets for the Children's Christmas Parties are urgently requesta wait—and also relieve the pressure on the office staff required to send them out.

Holiday Entertainment Raymond K. Coffey

When asked about his retirement plans, Coffey stated that he "million odd jobs around his place to do, those you keep putting off and never get done. Maybe I'll have time to accomplish a little now. Of course, this new gun is going to require some hunting to keep it in good shape, and fishing around Lenoir City is just about the best there is anywhere. You can bet that I won't be idle, not much of the time, anyway. A man has to keep active, and believe me, there's enough around the farm to keep seven people busy a long time." Fellow workers in Stores and all of Y-12 sends their best wishes along with Coffey for a prosperous and happy retirement.

ORSA Sets Another Shoot For Thursday
